Joanne M. Williams, CPA, CFE

Director of Forensic Accounting at Nussbaum Yates Berg Klein & Wolpov, LLP

Joanne Williams is the Director of Forensic Accounting at Nussbaum Yates Berg Klein & Wolpov, LLP since 2004. Her work includes performing attest and tax services for the firm's client base of middle market businesses. She is also responsible for engagements requiring forensic accounting and litigation support.

Mrs. Williams has over 20 years of experience in the public and private accounting sectors. She graduated from the Rochester Institute of Technology and is a licensed Certified Public Accountant in New York State since 1993. She was awarded the prestigious designation of Certified Fraud Examiner ("CFE") by the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners in 1997. Mrs. Williams previously worked at major national and regional accounting firms, gaining years of experience in accounting and auditing, tax, fraud and forensic investigations covering a broad range of industries including distribution, manufacturing, construction, health care, not-for-profit, real estate, retail, service, transportation and publicly-held companies.

Mrs. Williams is a member of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners ("ACFE"), the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants. She has lectured on various topics including auditing standards, fraud investigations and forensic accounting. She has served as the Secretary of the Long Island Chapter of the ACFE for two years and is presently serving as the chapter's Vice President of Membership.

Mrs. Williams received a Mentoring Achievement Award from the Mentoring Partnership of Long Island in January 2005, and is the co-creator and current administrator of the Mentoring Program at a local elementary school for the past nine years. She is very active in a variety of other charitable causes and civic organizations, including holding the position of Treasurer on the High School PTSA in her community.
